The first Mystic Banquet of the Grand Cross of Color was held on November 15, 1931, inaugurating an annual obligatory service of breaking bread with the Masters of the Grand Cross of Colors and renewing vows of service to the Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

The first investiture of the Grand Cross of Color was held on November 7, 1927 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Brother C. L. Stange wrote the vows, which, except for minor changes, have remained the same since then.
